Permian Basin Fair & Expo

Fun Facts

- In 2023, the Permian Basin Fair & Expo is celebrating 47 years of being part of the community.
- Since 1975, the Fair has awarded over one million dollars in scholarships, an achievement the Fair is notably proud of.
- Friday Fundays will be debut this year: Friday, September 1 & September 8. The budget-friendly days offers a combination of gate admission and an all-you-can-ride wristband for $25.
- Wright's Amusements has over 40 rides for fairgoers to enjoy & is the longest running carnival in North America.
- 2023 President, Chris Lawson, is serving as president for his second time. The first tenure was in 2017. He is the third person to achieve this status!
- The fair originated from a cow-patty throwing contest and has grown into premiere event in the Permian Basin.
- Cooper Concessions, one of the fair's longest serving food vendors will use a ton of pork for their infamous pork-ka-bobs, 3000 lemons for their fresh squeezed lemonade, and 10 gallons of mustard for the corn dogs during the fair's run.
